

Mr. Mark Drevno,

Hello Sir. my name is [REDACTED]
and im an inmate at The Ohio Reformatory for women.

my friend on The "OUTSIDE" ordered me your book "Jails To Jobs"
Seven Steps To Becoming Employed.

Obviously, I was wondering what I would have to endure when looking for employment when im released from Prison. even Though I've got quite a while.

BUT, what blew my mind about your book was the fact that it was filled with "Life Skills"
and not just Job finding skills!

for example: (my favorites)
on pg. 96 Nurturing Positive Thinking make the behavior changes first and the attitude will follow.
IT WORKED!

pg 98 (The enemy within) "just do it"

Pg 100 (Handling Stress)
(mindful meditation)

and I had my caseworker Print out The "Doing your Time with Peace of mind" booklet

Pg 154 The (money management)

Pg 156 stress reduction tips!

This entire book is just a plethora of Goldmind advice for Dealing with Stress in Prison! (and finding a job
when im home!)

Thank you so much
MR. Dreuno

I appreciate you so much.

Do you have any other helpful
books you've written?

P.S. Look for a $20.00
Donation To "Jails To Jobs inc"
from Me.

(I hope they approve it here)
Sometimes Prison administration is Paranoid about inmates making Donations. Why? I Don't Know.
but I'll Try!!

Thanks
